My name is John Casey and I shoot video!

I am a 30-year career firefighter/paramedic specializing in critical care and air rescue. Currently, I am attached to the aviation unit of the Broward Sherriff’s Office to provide airborne law enforcement and medivacs.

Growing up in South Florida, my love of the ocean started at an early age. I had an extremely adventurous childhood with almost complete freedom to explore and discover. Refusing to grow up, my passion is finding and capturing unique animal behaviors. Underwater cinematography has allowed me to document and share the discoveries my wife, Kelly and I have been fortunate enough to experience. While I’m much better at acquiring video than editing the existing hoard I am trying to develop a better workflow.

One of the great things about our love of the ocean is the interesting people we meet diving locally or abroad. We are always learning and discovering new things. See you out there diving!

Mike Bartick

Mike discovered his first Nudibranch in the frigid California waters just off the Southern California coastline where he was raised. Since that discovery his admiration for critters has blossomed into a full blown obsession that has lead him across the globe.

“Kamusta Anilao” is a digital coffee table book presented in Power Point combining a unique blend of observed experiences, photographic insight and rarely seen animal behaviors that include Egg Brooding fish, various and colorful Nudibranchs and mating frogfish shot almost exclusively in Anilao Philippines.

Minimal “croppin’ and shoppin” is Mike’s motto, Its all about spending the time underwater, doing your homework and crossing your fingers..

Mike is also the General Manager, Photo pro and head of marketing for Crystal Blue Resort in Anilao Philippines where he also conducts photo clinics and natural history seminars throughout each year.

SFUPS and S.T.O.P. August 2015 Sea Turtle Event Announcement!

Due to popular demand, we will be hosting another chance to potentially view hatching baby sea turtles this year!

August is high season for sea turtle hatch outs and this year’s event will be amazing!

Official SFUPS and S.T.O.P. release:

“SFUPS has organized a special “Coastal Ecology Course” with Sea Turtle Oversight Protection (S.T.O.P.). This educational program will be a chance to learn about the coastal habitat, the species of turtles that nest on our beaches, their life cycle and the natural and human-caused dangers that affect them. During the course you will accompany rescue volunteers for a walk to potentially witness a sea turtle hatch out."

Click here to visit http://www.seaturtleop.org

Endangered sea turtles need our help and this event will be a great way to learn and give back to your local community. We’re looking forward to seeing you on the beach!

For information on date, cost and to SIGN UP contact: angelasmith@rcn.com

Make sure to reserve your spot ASAP since there are limited spaces! We will have a sign up sheet and be accepting payment for the course at the SFUPS meeting on August 11.
